BUSINESS/COMMERCIAL LITIGATION

As partners of Sbaiti & Company PLLC, a boutique litigation firm, Mazin Sbaiti and Brad Robinson never shy away from a tough challenge or a fight. The firm brings 100 years of combined experience, successfully taking on some of the most challenging cases.

The firm was founded to fill a void in the Dallas legal community: the old-guard trial boutiques were growing larger and were less willing to take on business clients outside the Fortune 500, entrepreneurs, or investors. At the same time, those clients were searching for agile, aggressive firms that offered more client-specific and tailored strategies, instead of the same cookie-cutter solutions they were used to hearing. Sbaiti & Co. was established to do precisely that and has successfully done so since the firm's inception. The firm is also one of the few that is willing to take on high-stakes business matters on contingency fee.

The firm's engagements most frequently involve complex business torts, including fraud and securities issues; breaches of contract; complex employment actions, including harassment/non-competition/antitrust/Lanham Act violations or intellectual property disputes; government-related litigation or investigations; and whistleblower suits.

Both Sbaiti and Robinson are humbled by the fact that 90% of their work is referred by other lawyers, including from former opposing counsel. In fact, the firm was recently appointed lead counsel in a $1.4 billion dollar securities matter that was referred by a prior opposing counsel. They are frequently brought in during litigation by another law firm who needs to bring the case home for the client whether through trial, appeal, or settlement.
